An overview of how SustainDub is actuating plans and energizing the local community to create a greener, healthier, and more equitable future for all Seahawks.
2020 Adaptations.

- Developed interactive virtual programs for staff and students
- Partnered with key stakeholders to create meaningful end-of-year celebrations
- Aligned all work with the social equity pillar of sustainability
Aligning Resiliency.

- Stronger, Smarter Infrastructure
- Communication for Hunger Relief
- Climate Resiliency and Action Plan
Stormwater.

• Community Leader
• Volunteer Opportunities
• Expert Seminars

Gallons of stormwater runoff reduced by just one of the four rain gardens installed in partnership with NC Coastal Federation and the City of Wilmington, utilizing a $200,000 EPA grant.
Sustainable Students.

9  Paid Sustainability Peer Educators

17  Interns for the Office of Sustainability

11  Freshman in the new Sustainability Living & Learning Community
Outreach & Recognition.

- Met Sustainability Pledge Goal
- Implemented Sign Campaign
- Acquired News Coverage
- Granted Local Awards
The Green Initiative Fund.

$35,798.10 directly back into the hands of students for research, programs, professional development, and volunteer opportunities.
Poll Question!
Clean Energy.

40%

Lifetime energy savings expected through the new Konvecta Heat Energy Recovery system installed in Dobo Hall during the renovation.
Waste.

322%

Increase in the pounds of recyclable plastics collected. A total of 458 tons of materials were sorted by the Recycling Department.
Natural Areas.

567 Trees planted on UNCW's campus in 2020. The majority of these were planted with student volunteers during COVID-safe events.
Questions.